[COPY OF FAX 0001] OF 0000 ?

I don't care to be nice - my mother can speak for me - but you just have some nerve -- I want to know who called you to then call me - the person's name -- DEMAND!

Next - DOCTOR, do you think that you and your firm can actually follow a 2003 NIH document on Communication standards -- no, I bet -- this entire problem I have attempted to correct all of the ways back to 2005.

It was December 2005 when I first encounter this patterned memeplex with Doctor Lisha Wilson - don't fucking insult my intelligence - so far you still acting slimy.

NO MORE!

FOLLOW THE CORRECT ORDER OF STANDARDS OF CARE - FOR THIS IT! NO MORE OF THIS SHIT OF SILENCE!

Communication gaffes: a root cause of malpractice claims

Beth Huntington, BSN, MSN, JD^{✉1} and Nettie Kuhn, RN, BSPA, CPHRM¹

Excerpt: [Do you think you could - I DEMAND YOU MUST – face to face READ THIS TEXT to me and my mother in session later]

The importance of developing rapport with patients cannot be overemphasized. Effective communication skills are a critical tool that assists the physician in establishing that optimal patient rapport. Physicians need to keep in mind that today's health care consumers, particularly those in the baby boomer and younger age groups, have much more medical knowledge than senior citizens. Both young and old, however, often judge the quality of care received on the basis of the physician-patient interaction. Certainly, the physician's skill and reputation play an important role in a patient's confidence. However, many if not most patients assume that physicians have the requisite technical skill to treat their medical problems. From the patient's perspective, therefore, what separates the adequate or average physician from the truly great physician is how well the physician practices the "art" of medical care, conveying those highly valued human skills of compassion and caring concern that patients seem to need so much.

All too often, when physicians do not communicate caring concern, especially when the care is painful, difficult, or results in less-than-optimal outcomes, an inevitable cycle of miscommunication occurs among patient, family, and physician. Under these circumstances, patients who express their anger and frustration may cause the physician to react defensively in a way that may be perceived as hostile or arrogant. Most often it is this response that causes the patient to seek the advice of an attorney, because poor communication between a physician and patient can lead an already angry, dissatisfied patient to believe the care was poor even when it was entirely appropriate (5). In the arena of physician liability, the burden of "successful" patient-physician communication lies with physicians (5). That is not to say that patients do not share the burden, but society and the courts have deemed that physicians have the ultimate responsibility for initiating, clarifying, facilitating, documenting, and reinforcing discussions related to their patients' condition, treatment, and prognosis (5)

Do you think that should be AFFIRMED IN A COMMIT YOU MAKE IN WRITING TO ME? I DEMAND IT! STANDARDS NEED TO BE CHANGED OBVIOUSLY!

IF YOU CALL TO CANCEL - 72 HOURS I WILL BE GOING OUT OF THIS HOUSE -- INTO -- OFF THE GRID - AND FINDING A DEEP FOREST TO WALK INTO -- AS FAR INTO THE FOREST TO FALL DOWN AND FALL DOWN TO CRY -- CRY CRY -- I DIE!

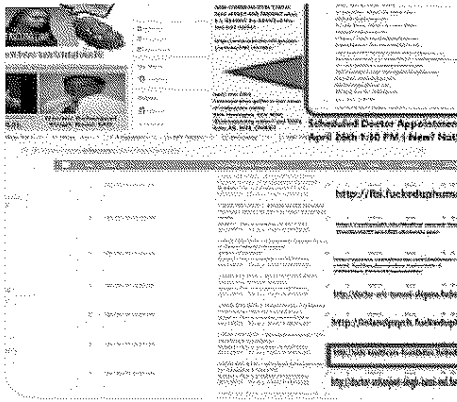

IS THAT THE OUTCOME THAT YOU ALL DESIRE?

SURE SEEMS LIKE YOU WON'T DROP THE SHIT!

SHIT SHIT SHIT - ALL OUT OF INTEGRITY OF TRUST WOBLES!

NO MORE TIME!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mr. James Driskill has been a client of mine for Individual Psychotherapy since October 30, 2006. He has been attending Foothill AIDS Project's (FAP) "Living Well With HIV/AIDS" men's Support Group on a weekly basis since September 2006. He was self-referred for Individual Psychotherapy.

Mr. Driskill sought treatment for a high level of stress and anxiety primarily regarding his housing situation. He became homeless in Oakland earlier in 2006 and is currently residing with his family and extended Family in San Bernardino. In addition to his unresolved eviction in Oakland he was not able to secure immediate housing through the AIDS Housing Program in San Bernardino County due to a waiting period for each new applicant. These events resulted in Mr. Driskill experiencing a high level of anger and frustration.

While in both settings of therapy, Men's Support Group or Individual Psychotherapy, Mr. Driskill accepts the fact that he has an upfront, in your face style of confrontation. The men and I have come to realize that his style is primarily a reaction to his extreme level of frustration and we have learned not to be put off by his style. In these affirming settings he has learned to modify his style of confrontation which should continue to improve. I have also been impressed with how Mr. Driskill has sought out resources on how to understand and to cope more effectively while experiencing an almost complete lack of support from agencies and individuals. One such resource was the book "Please Understand Me: Character & Temperament Types", Kiersey, Davis and Bates, Marilyn.

His Mental Health and HIV Health status were both clinically affected by his housing crisis in Oakland and here in San Bernardino. He is currently responding well to the treatments and his prognosis is good. However, I believe that until there is an appropriate resolution (he wants an absolution) of his housing conflicts, he will remain in a vulnerable state regarding his overall HIV and Mental Health status.

Sincerely,

Howard W. Newsom PhD.

This agency is FRAUDULANT in its services and practices when it comes to serving the HIV population and utilizing Ryan White Funding. My recommendation for any HIV client interested in signing with them is to run as far and as fast as you can...they treat HIV consumers with contempt and unprofessionism.

You All Know What Happened!
Doctor Shigeno Unjustly Terminated My
Care -- and Filed a Restraining Order When I
Attempted To Correct Him By Fax. When The Police First Came By My House, I told The San Bernardino Police Officers that I would BREAK ANY RESTRAINING ORDER!
I WILL DO SUCH ACTION AGAIN TOO!
So, about 10 days prior of April 10th, 2020,
I broke the Retraining order. Fax To SBPD,
FAP, and Borrego Health!
Dr. Shigeno died of a so-called STROKE!
I AM SURE, 90% SURE -- HE COMMITTED SUICIDE! --- Confirm The Truth!
